“ Joe was special. He and I could make each other laugh at almost anything, at one of the reunions he and I were watching folks arrive and commenting on how much the class has changed in looking older. he leaned over and whispered " I believe some have brought their parents. we both had so much fun, but most of all he was special to me and my late wife Judy. Back in 1959 I told Joe I needed to borrow his car. I believe it was a 51 Olds that was green with a cream top. I was home on leave from the Navy. I had just gotten back from her house in NJ. she called me to come pick her up as she and her parents had words. I told Joe we might be running away and get married. He lent us the car and $23.00 dollars. that is all we had to our names. We did get married and it lasted 60 years till she passed. we both loved Joe a lot. Joe look for Judy I know she is there.
