

Ann L. Micklus

November 3, 2022

Ann L. Micklus, 87, of South Whitehall Township, entered into eternal rest on Thursday, November 3rd in Allentown. She was the wife of Francis J. Micklus and they had been married for 67 years. Born in Allentown, she was a daughter of the late Robert E. Farrell and Lola (Wagner) Farrell. A graduate of Allen High School Class of 1953, she then worked for Lehigh Portland Cement Company and then as a buyer for the former Hess's Department Store. She was of the catholic faith and was a member of ST. Thomas More Roman Catholic Church in Allentown, where she was a charter member. Ann loved to cook and bake, enjoyed spending her winters in Puerto Vallarta MX, playing bridge with her church group and was also active in helping disabled children.

Surviving are daughters Lee Ann Petrowski and husband Ray of Lewes, DE, and Bethann Merola and husband Joe of Old Saybrook CT, granddaughters Jennifer Vogel of Pittsburgh and Candace Laferty of NJ, and great grandsons Mason and Holden, and her beloved dog Maggie. She was pre-deceased by brothers William and Robert and by a sister Mary Remmel.

Services will be private.

Tribute Wall

CK

“ I will always remember the many card games with Ann, who was a great bridge player and fun to be around.. My sympathy and prayers to the family. Carol Kelley

Carol Kelley - November 11, 2022 at 03:56 PM

DH

“ Ann was one of my favorite customers at the bank. She truly cared about me and my children. Would of done anything for me, had I let her. A very, very caring woman. Lost touch over the years but memories stick forever. God Bless her kind heart. May she rest in peace. She loved her Frank. Beautiful couple. She was a very classy lady.

Love, Deana Held
Retired teller, Cedar Crest Blvd.

Deana Held - November 06, 2022 at 08:46 AM

MW

Francis ,Lee Ann, and Bethann,
Our condolences to you and the family. May she Rest In Peace

Michele Osley Wertman

Michele Wertman - November 07, 2022 at 09:29 AM