“ Dear Cathy,

Our condolences on the loss of your mother. As a kid growing up I always thought she was a beauty queen. In fact, I still remember her being pictured on the cover of a farming magazine after she was selected to be, not sure if it was a Dairy or Poultry Queen, but looked like a princess to this little girl. I can still see it in my mind. Beautiful. She was a feisty lady that carried herself with grace and dignity. Until you meet again....

Due to other obligations Tom and I are unable to attend her celebration of life.

*Love to all,
Marianne and family*
