

Barrie L. Leeser

June 23, 2021

Barrie L. Leeser, 81, of Whitehall, passed away Wednesday, June 23, 2021 at the Inpatient Hospice Unit of L.V. Hospital. He was the husband of Nancy M. (Jacoby) Leeser, with whom he shared 46 years of marriage. Born in Allentown, he was the son of the late Ira L. and Miriam S. (Stauffer) Leeser. Before retiring in 2003, he worked at Allen Organ for nearly 45 years, lastly as a supervisor. He was a member of Christ Church UCC, Bethlehem, where he sang on the choir for many years. Barrie had an incredible talent for music, singing with the Zion Choral Society, playing the trumpet and trombone and was part of many music groups such as the Macungie Band. He was an avid Intarsia artist, esp. creating all sorts of wood masterpieces. He enjoyed traveling, skiing and camping on many great adventures with friends and family. Formerly, he served on the Board of Directors at Maple Grove Raceway. He was an Army veteran, serving in the Signal Corps in Germany during the Vietnam Era. While in the Army he was part of the martial arts program and participated in karate tournaments.

Survivors: Wife Nancy, brothers Phillip N. and John H. and his wife Jane, all of Macungie; many nieces and nephews and his beloved dog Mandy.

Memorial Services: 1:00 PM, Wednesday, June 30 at Christ Church UCC, 75 E. Market St., Bethlehem. Calling will begin at Noon.

“ Barrie was a great guy with a dry and funny sense of humor. Very talented and always with a thirst for learning something new. A fine person with much to offer and a valued cousin who will be missed. Happy he has found his peace. Marilyn Leh
