Betty Jean Pizzola, better known as Jeanie, was born on December 29, 1940, in Clearfield County, Pennsylvania to Thomas and Cora (Dunlap) MacTavish (both deceased). She died on July 6, 2024, in Allentown, Pennsylvania. She was married twice, first to Larry Anderson, then Anthony Pizzola (both deceased). She is preceded in death by her sisters, Viola Grace Corderman and Linda Mortorff. She is survived by her brothers Thomas MacTavish (Lance, PA) and Gary MacTavish (Howard, PA), and sister Diane Flinchbaugh (Wallkill, NY). She never had children but had many nieces and nephews and grand nieces and nephews, and many devoted friends.

Her memorial service is being planned.

Jeanie was baptized in 1957 as one of Jehovah's Witnesses and spent her life serving her God. She spent her early years in Munson, PA, then York, PA, then for the past three years at Legacy Place in Allentown, PA, where she received outstanding care. She was part of the Spring Grove, PA Congregation for many years, even remotely after her move to Allentown. She worked as a seamstress for most of her life.

Jeanie will be remembered as a kindhearted, joyful person, who took care of her family, and maintained excellent friendships with her many friends. All look forward to her resurrection party! Until then she will be missed.
