

Clarence D. Heintzelman, Jr.

May 31, 2022

Clarence D. Heintzelman, Jr., formerly of Allentown, passed away peacefully Tuesday May 31, 2022 at Plainview Assisted Living in Richland MS. He was the husband of the late Jean A. (Miller) Heintzelman, until her passing in 1996, and Jeanette (Fox) Heintzelman until her passing in April 2021.

Born in Allentown, he was the son of the late Clarence D. And Margaret (Dieruff) Heintzelman. He was a member of the Cathedral of St. Catherine of Siena R.C. Church, Allentown. Clarence was an army veteran serving from 1945 to 1947 where he worked at a VA hospital in Pasadena California. He worked at Hummels Storage for many years before taking jobs as sexton for Christ Lutheran and St. Stephen's Lutheran churches in Allentown prior to retirement.

He was predeceased by his brothers Harold, Charles, Lamont, and Clifford. He is survived by his son Daniel and his wife Catherine; grandchildren Kevin and his wife Reba, and Kristopher and his wife Rebecca; sisters Anna Mae Diefenderfer, Violet Braim, Barbara Grammes; great grandchildren Alexander and his wife Brittany, Brian, Jonathan, and Steven Heintzelman, Mark and his wife Susan and Jake Wooten. Great-great grandchildren Ava, Sadie, and Sydney.

Mass of Christian Burial: 11:00 AM Tuesday, June 7th at Cathedral Church,

1825 W. Turner Street Allentown. Calling will begin at 10:00 AM at church.

Previous Events

Calling

JUN 7. 10:00 AM - 11:00 AM (ET)

Cathedral Church St Catharine of Siena
1825 W Turner St
Allentown, PA 18104
(610) 433-6461

Mass of Christian Burial

JUN 7. 11:00 AM (ET)

Cathedral Church St Catharine of Siena
1825 W Turner St
Allentown, PA 18104
(610) 433-6461