“ Dear Dan and Becky, and families, Our lives will always be entwined by the memories of our Moms. Having lived with Mom and me for 12 years, Doris brought much joy, laughter and love to our lives. You were both at their last birthday party together (picture: Doris 94, Joanne - aka Petunia - 91, 6 months before my Mom passed). Now they are back together forever, no more goodbyes, no more missing each other, dancing up and down the streets of gold together, and of course, the best part of all - worshipping Jesus together forever, like they did in the Seibert Choir, where they first met.

Dear Becky, Dan and Family, I am sorry to hear of Doris' passing but we all know she is in a better place with Jesus and out of pain. Doris was a wonderful friend, and I enjoyed the hours we spent playing pinochle on Tuesday afternoons in the apartment she shared with Joanne (Petunia) and Carolyn in Allentown. We also enjoyed the annual trips to Shady Maple. She tried to teach me the names of her grandkids but I could never manage to get them right. She also tried to teach me a Pennsylvania Dutch phrase, something about catching flies which I never mastered, but she never gave up hope. Doris will be missed but not forgotten. Love, Marilyn and Rick Guidry
