

Edith Morales

December 8, 2025

Edith (Santiago) Morales, 90, of Allentown, passed away peacefully on Monday December 8, 2025 at St. Luke's- Allentown Campus. She was the wife of the late Manuel Morales. Born in Peñuelas, Puerto Rico, Edith was the daughter of the late Alexandria Sanitago.

Edith spent her life as a seamstress but also took great joy in caring for her family. Edith was adored by her grandchildren and later her great grandchildren. She was then blessed to be a great- great grandmother. Her love of family was her greatest love in life. Edith was a faithful follower of Christ and read her Bible daily.

Edith is survived by her sons Felix O. Cuadrado, husband of Gloria, of Bethlehem Twp., Nelson Cuadrado, husband of Ilene, of Upper Macungie Twp., William Cuadrado, husband of Victoria of Monterey, CA; daughter Wanda L. Gonzales of Allentown; brother John Alier of Chattanooga, TN and countless grandchildren, great grandchildren and great- great grandchildren.

Services will be private and at the convenience of the family.

Trexler Funeral Home, Inc., Allentown is in charge of arrangements.

Condolences may be offered at trexlerfuneralhome.com.
