

Emma D. True

November 6, 2024

Emma D. True, 93, of Macungie, passed away Wednesday, November 6, 2024 at Luther Crest, Allentown, Pennsylvania. She was the wife of the late Norman E. True. Born in Reading, Pennsylvania, she was the daughter of the late James H. and Harriet (Souders) Querns. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church, Allentown, where she sang in the choir for over 50 years. An active member of the church's knitting group, Emma handmade prayer shawls and hats to donate to elementary school children. Before retiring, she worked for the family business, Querns Candies, and was a ceramic teacher holding classes in her home. She volunteered at Cedarbrook Nursing Home teaching ceramics to residents. She enjoyed singing with the Reading Chorale and traveling throughout the United States with her beloved husband. With abundant love, she was an extraordinary wife, sister, mother, grandmother, great grandmother and friend.

Survivors: daughters Norma Jean Odgen and her husband Peter of Stafford, VA, Karen Lee

“ To the family of Emma. I had the pleasure of meeting her through the doctor's office I worked at. She was a very sweet lady and always had kind words and a hug. Later after my employment ended, we did keep in touch via e-mail. I will miss her notes and was hoping I could visit her someday but did not know where she was located and was no longer able to get in touch with her. My sympathy to her family and friends.

“ Emma and I became very close friends by E-mailing each other after all our class reunions were over. She became a very dear friend. She was so caring and so full of love. We prayed for each other and she expressed herself so beautifully. I came to love her very much. Emma loved her family and they were always there for her. I'm so sorry for your loss. All my love,
Marian Shannon
