

Fay B. Kelley

February 19, 2025

Fay (Overlauer) Kelley was born in Allentown, PA, on April 24, 1941. She was the beloved daughter of Catherine and Tony Overlauer and brought immense joy to their lives.

Fay graduated from Emmaus High School and later attended the Real Estate School of Allentown. She went on to have a successful 20-year career in real estate, where she was honored for her exceptional service to her clients.

A devoted member of Faith Church on Hamilton Boulevard in the Trexlertown area for many years, Fay served as a Stephen Minister and was actively involved in the Divorce Care Ministry. In 1989, Jesus claimed Fay's heart, and she lived faithfully in His love.

Fay was predeceased by her husband, Bob Kolenberg, with whom she had her beloved daughter, Kathy, and she remained in touch with his children, Bob and She-She over the years. She was also predeceased by her late husband, Everett Kelley. She leaves behind also her son-in-law, Craig; her two cherished grandchildren, Matthew and Lauren; and her great-granddaughter, Reagan. She was predeceased by her loving companion of 15 years, her toy poodle, Teddy.

On February 19, 2025, Fay was lovingly escorted to her eternal home by Jesus.
