

Frank J. McGimpsey

July 29, 2024

Frank J. McGimpsey, 90, of Allentown, died Monday, July 29, 2024, at The Atrium of Allentown. He was the husband of Barbara (Griffith) McGimpsey.

Frank was born in Jersey City, NJ on October 3, 1933. After high school, he attended Lehigh University and earned a degree in accounting in 1955. He started a career in New York City with the accounting firm of Ernst & Ernst. His accounting career was interrupted by serving as a commissioned officer in the U.S. Navy in Newport, RI. He earned his CPA certificate and retired as CFO of Pentamation Enterprises in 1998.

On April 14, 1956, he married Barbara Griffith. He and Barbara enjoyed 308 BAE Ocean City, MD, cruising and winters spent in Destin, FL.

Frank is survived by his wife, Barbara; sons, Brian McGimpsey and his wife Theresa, and Keith McGimpsey and his wife, Sherri; daughter Karen and her husband Thomas Kistler; grandsons, Frank McGimpsey II, and Nicholas Kistler; granddaughters, Amanda McGimpsey, Kayleigh Kistler, Alissa Oliver and her husband Austin, and Laura McGimpsey; great grandson, Maverick Oliver.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to The Care Team Hospice Care, 5325 Northgate Dr., Bethlehem, PA 18017.

Tribute Wall

JZ

“ Dear Barbara and Family, My deepest sympathy to you on the loss of Frank. He was my friend and Pentamation colleague and we both bled Brown and White. I regret not having more of our occasional lunches as the years passed. I will miss his humor and booming laughter. Rest in peace, my friend.

Jud Zavar

Jud Zavar - August 01, 2024 at 08:58 PM