“Condolences to all the family. Fred surely will be missed. He was always a very giving and sharing person. His love and enjoyment for music was his greatest hobby. From records to tapes to compact discs he was always up to date on his collections through the many years. I know him best for his interest in music. Most recently Fred had me update his compact disc player equipment in his rack system, he wanted to have better quality sound. This was accomplished and he was very excited to hear that great sound. He enjoyed the outings we did especially with the Oldies Music over the years which he loved. We will all miss him, we will never forget him.
