“ Scott, Brandie, Brianna, James, and Suie...I don't know where to begin to express how much the loss of Gina hurts. I know the pain is nowhere near the pain you're experiencing, but I am at a loss. I cannot wrap my head around Gina not coming over for cookouts, being at the pool, playing cards and dominoes at my house anymore. I still remember like it was yesterday the first time Scott and I met 31 years ago. Scott and I became brothers and we all became family that day (thanks to an unfortunate volleyball incident lol). I never even thought, that after a short 31 years, we would be facing this loss. The memories we have all created together from: Scott's apartment; helping Gina's Dad that hot summer day (and Scott finding me getting "hit" 3 times so amusing); the home in Laurys Station (and the many nights I slept on the couch there); Scott and I "seeing" Pete in the hospital after that football game; and the countless many more memories I shall forever remember. Please remember I am here for all of you always, and we will continue to be family forever. I love all of you, and I will forever miss Gina in our gatherings, but we will toast to her each time.

With my deepest condolences and love for all of you,
"Uncle" Kevin
