“ I have so many great memories of my Gram. She was the one that turned me onto loving to shop and finding a good deal whether it was at Old Navy, The Gap, Goodwill, a yard sale, or Rice's Flea Market.
I remember getting all dressed up to go to her house for different holidays and having her peanut butter blossoms, egg nog, and minced clam dip with chips. I am going to miss her calling me almost every single day and her witty comments. Thank you Gram for being there for us when we were little and letting me be there for you as you got older.

“ Aunt Gloria. I'm sad that you have left us, but happy your suffering has ended. I always enjoyed visiting with you when I'd come to hang out with Vicky. The specific conversations are lost to time now. But, know I always held, and will continue to hold your memory in my heart. Love, your nephew, Dave.
