“ Scott H. Kranzley: Colonel Leonard R. Hein was an immediate supervisor that I had when I worked as his Lieutenant at the Brandywine Hospital in Coatesville, PA on the 3rd shift for 3 years (2005-2008), supervising the shifts and keeping the hospital safe and secure. He was one of the best bosses that I’ve ever had. I thought of him often, and always will. I was very disheartened to learn that he passed 3 years ago. He was a man of integrity, a man of his word. I will pray that I will see him in the afterlife. Hope his family can find solace from his loss.

“ Pop would always watch taped Phillies games from a day or two back. I always wanted to just say pop, they lost! But I never did, he enjoyed them just as much as the live ones. Miss you pop.
