

Lucille J. Zborel

September 19, 2022

Lucille J. Zborel, 87 of Allentown, passed away September 19, 2022. Born May 21, 1935 in Fullerton, she was the daughter of the late Dean and Verna (Bailey) Heil and the devoted wife of the late Thomas W. Zborel for over 60 years. She was a member of St. John's Evg. Lutheran Church, Whitehall. Lucille graduated from Whitehall High School (1953), the Bryan School of Nursing (1955), and during her professional career completed several courses at the Allentown Business School and Lehigh County Community College. Lucille worked for 18 years at Lehigh Safety Shoe and nearly 20 years at Lehigh Valley Health Network. Lucille enjoyed camping, horseback riding, and bowling – but her biggest joy was as a wife and mother. She was tirelessly devoted to providing and caring for her family. A renowned cook and baker, Lucille was the proud hostess of gatherings small and large where no one left hungry, and every heart was filled with the warmth of her kindness and laughter.

Lucille was predeceased by her husband, Thomas W. Zborel, brother, Alton Heil, and sister Marion Kidd. She is survived by her son William J. Zborel, daughter Tammy L., wife of Eric Trimbur, and nieces Elaine Kidd, Lynette Kidd, Sharon Faust, Fay Kleppinger; nephews Virgil Kidd, Sterling Kidd and Tim Heil; and many great+ nieces and nephews.

“ To Lucille's family:

I worked with Lucille at LVHN for many years. She was a bright spot and always willing to make you chuckle. My sympathies and prayers are with you during this time.
