“Mary was a shining light in the lives of all who knew her. She was always interested in what my family was doing. She and my mother became good friends in the 1990's and after my mother passed, she and I became pen pals. Her letters were very long and very interesting. It was so interesting to read her perspectives on life. When she visited my mom in Bethlehem, her personality radiated in the room. I will miss her. RIP, Mary.
