“ This is Ann Kern, friend of the family...wish to express condolences for the loss of Mary. I have very fond memories of visiting the Myer's home in Allentown, hanging out with Barb and whoever else was there at the time!; being served a welcoming cup of coffee and offered homemade desserts by Mary. Yum! My mother had many skills but baking was not one of them! Thus, I valued a good home baked cookie! I have personally continued this 'tradition' ( having someone else do the baking, preferably Mennonites and/or Amish). Mary was truly a giver...a real "sweetheart". Never heard her say a negative comment about anyone. She certainly had a long and meaningful life - enjoy celebrating her life tomorrow.
