“ I was a long time customer of marylou, starting back in the late 70's I believe when she worked on Hamilton st, then I ran into her when she worked on Tilghman st then holiday hair then truth beauty salon, wile getting my hair cut I always told her about my crazy life and we would talk about all the crazy things going on in the world, she was such a very nice person, she was such a hard worker, I truly miss her very much, I hope she is with her family and loved ones,
