“ I'm so sorry for you're loss, I've know Mike for 55 years . He was my late husband Gary best friend growing up. He was there for me when I lost my husband. We'd go for coffee. N dinner we went to many concerts together in the last 3 years. He will be greatly missed

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. I worked with Mike for many years at Rexroth and eventually ended up his group leader. He was a pleasure to work with and was a kind man. I had some fun times outside the workplace with Mike and he was even over my home many years ago. I always liked Mike and am so sad about his loss.

I just lost my beautiful wife 9 months ago which also worked at Rexroth and Mike knew well. Mike out of nowhere just started messaging me on Facebook 8 weeks ago. I haven't talked to him in years and he just reached out to me numerous times saying such kind things to me about Donna and what I'm going through. He actually left some nice comments on some of my posts recently. He had such kind words about who Donna and I were and how lucky I was to have Donna in my life for 30 years. He was all excited about a cruise he was ready to go on, I believe Alaska. May his soul rest in peace.
