

Nancy Eckhart

February 19, 2025

Nancy Eckhart, 87, passed away on February 19, 2025 in Whitehall Pennsylvania. She was the wife of Ralph R. Eckhart, with whom she was married 56 years.

Born in Ashfield, Pa. Nancy led a life filled with adventure, passion and cherished moments with her loved ones. She began her teaching career on the White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico where Ralph was stationed. Demonstrating her dedication to education and adaptability in new environments.

Nancy had an eye for a good bargain and delighted in taking Jason, or sometimes her grandson, Shawn on shopping trips to hunt for the best deals. Her love for bingo was unmatched; she found great joy in playing alongside her friends.

Travel was another of Nancy's great pleasures. She and her family explored many remarkable destinations, including Alaska, the French Alps and Hawaii. Late in life, she and Ralph discovered a shared love for skiing. Though they took up the sport later than most, they embraced it wholeheartedly and enjoyed every moment together with Jason.

Nancy's memory will live on through the experiences she shared with those who knew her. May her adventurous spirit and love for life continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to have known her.

Services will be held at a future date.
