“ I call Pat the Godmother of Allentown. No matter what the weather, Pat and Kim would go to foodbanks and elsewhere every day to gather food, books and anything else that she knew was needed. Then they would deliver these items to individuals in need in and around Allentown. They would stop to feed animals they encountered during their trips. They continued their daily routine until about a year ago when Pat could no longer walk or drive. I remember her telling me that a little boy wanted a Christmas tree. Pat gave his family the tree, all the trimmings and gifts. Pat was a funny, witty, well-read, loving lady with a heart of gold. Pat and Kim's outstanding, dedicated service to the community was recognized with a Community Service Award by State Representative Peter Schweyer. Pat cherished that Award and I'm so glad she was able to receive her flowers while she was alive. Pat will be sorely missed, but I know she well-earned her wings and is resting in peace with our Lord.

In loving memory
