“ Randy’s love for his daughter Sara was evident with his words and smile. Just one of the many moments that he showed it.

“ I met Randy through his beautiful daughter Sara while she was dating her now husband Joe. From the first moment that we were introduced, I knew that Randy was a genuinely good and thoughtful person. He was quiet yet you could enjoy a wonderful conversation with him. We attended several college hockey games cheering on the Marauders and would enjoy his presence. The day he gave his daughter’s hand to Joe in marriage I saw the soft side. The love that he constantly showed towards his wife Mary and daughter Sara was beautiful. I am so thankful that our paths crossed for having known Randy was a true gift. To Randy’s family...I am so sorry that you have lost this great man....I do thank you for sharing him with so many others. We are all better people for having known Randy. You will all be in our thoughts and prayers. The Collins Family

“ Randy and I worked Side by side for over 10 years, his abilities to prank and scare me were second to none. His sense of humor and caring are what stick with me now. I deeply miss him and will remember him always.

Always a great friend and Confidant. RIP my friend, until we meet again. In deepest sympathy, Jeff and Rita Reinhard.
