

Richard J. Domrzalski

February 20, 2024

Richard J. Domrzalski, 82, of Allentown, passed away Tuesday, February 20, 2024, at Lehigh Valley Hospice. He was the husband of Pamela M. (Hoffman) Domrzalski for the past 35 years. Born in the Port Richmond section of Philadelphia, he was the son of the late Jean (Moszczynski) Matteo and Walter Domrzalski.

He was a proud graduate of North Catholic High School in Philadelphia. He attended Drexel University where he received his bachelors of science degree in business administration and the University of Pennsylvania for his master's degree in arts and communications. He enjoyed golfing, cribbage, and playing poker monthly with his friends and was an avid Phillies and Eagles fan.

Richard worked for Sears as a Manager and Head of Customer service, Air Products in Public relations and Contributions, Vice President for HR consulting company Kranz & Associates, and finally Marketing Manager for Lehigh Valley Red Cross.

He is survived by his daughter, Kathy (Domrzalski) Cary of Allentown, NJ, his grandchildren Rebecca of Arlington, VA, Jillian, and Sean of Allentown, NJ, his stepson Steven Brooks and step grandchildren Katelin and Daniel of Mount Pleasant, SC, his sister Lorraine (Domrzalski) Cuddy of Perkiomenville, PA.

Services will be private at the convenience of the family.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to American Red Cross of the Greater Lehigh Valley, 3939 Broadway, Allentown, PA 18104.

I'm so sorry for the loss of Rich. We loved playing cribbage with him not just because he was a good player but also because he was a fun and entertaining person and made our games interesting. We miss Rich!..
