

Ronald N. Graver

January 20, 2021

Ronald N. Graver, 85, of Allentown, passed away on Wednesday, January 20, 2021 at Luther Crest Retirement Village. He was the husband of the late Jeannette A. (Siemer) Graver. Born in Allentown, he was a son of the late Norman and Alice (Danner) Graver. Ronald was a mechanical engineer at the former Bell Labs for over 30 years before retiring in 1989. He earned his BS in Mechanical Engineering from Lafayette College. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. Ronald was offered a contract to play baseball for the Philadelphia A's minor league system as a pitcher.

Survivors; sons, Chris and wife, Belle; Matthew and wife, Kelly; Robert and wife, Kim; daughters, Karen and husband, Frank Toohey; Ellen and husband, Michael Stover; sister Jeanette, and husband John Urban; 14 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Services are private.

In lieu of flowers, a donation in Ronald's memory may be made to the National Right to Life Council, <https://www.nrlc.org/donate/>