

Rose M. Bundra

June 13, 2025

Rose M. Bundra, 93, formerly of Allentown and Orefield, passed away Friday, June 13, 2025 at Heather Glen Senior Living, Allentown. She was the wife of the late Donald Dennis Bundra. Born in Fullerton, she was the daughter of the late Antonio A. and Augusta (Antoniuzzi) Montagner. She was a member of St. Francis of Assisi R. C. Church, Allentown. Rose was a Parkland High School Class of 1950 graduate, and was active in planning their class reunions for many years. She retired from Mack Trucks as an administrative assistant and continued on as an ambassador at the Mack Trucks Historical Museum into her 80's. She was an active and supportive parent in the Lehigh County Youth Association while her children were young, and a member of the Sears Retirees. Rose will be remembered for her love of gardening and cooking, but mostly the love she had for her family, especially her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Survivors: sons Dennis and his wife Linda of Orefield, Thomas of Alburtis, Daniel and his wife Sharon of Whitehall, Joseph and his wife Holly of Allentown; daughter Bonita, wife of Duane Miller of Salisbury Twp; sisters Mary Gober and Rena Berg, both of Whitehall, 12 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her brothers James, Alduino and Hugo Montagner, sister Clara Badesso and daughter in law Stacy Morane.

“ Bonnie and family:

So sorry to hear of the loss of your mom. When we lose a parent, it's like a part of us has disappeared. Know that she left us a great gift in you. Prayers for you and your family.

“ Rose became a great friend when I was a volunteer at the Mack Museum. When I became curator in 2015, she offered her knowledge, experience and support as I had immersed myself into my new role. It was sad to see her retire but it was for all of the right reasons. Rose may not be present with us here in the physical sense, but she is always here in spirit and in our fond memories. Doug Maney, Curator, Mack Trucks Historical Museum
