“ Aunt Ruth, May you find peace beyond this life, and may those who loved you find comfort in cherished memories. May God hold you in the palm of his hand —until we meet again. Love, Robie

“ Ruth came into my life when we both moved to Luther Crest. She was one of the warmest, kindest and sincerest people I have had the privilege to know. She always reached beyond herself to know more about you and your family. She never appeared depressed nor discouraged. She looked for the positive and believed God would care for her. When you chatted with her, you always felt uplifted and happier. She was very interested in the Arboretum and asked questions and talked about how much she appreciated the new trees and gardens. “ I had the privilege of attending what was then called "Opportunity School" for grades 4-6 at the Jackson School in Allentown. In or around 1954, when I was 11 years old and in 6th grade, the class was given the privilege to be bussed the few blocks to the then-Allentown High School to learn typing. Miss Eisenhart was the typing teacher for that program. I remember her as a kind person and skilled teacher, who taught me the skill of typing, which has endured through my life and has served me well. I went on to college (Cornell) and law school (University of Michigan), and practiced law until retiring.

Thank you, Miss Eisenhart. I wish you eternal peace.
