“ I'll miss you, Tom. It was good seeing you each week in church as well as seeing you at Linda's funeral just a few weeks ago. Your love for Linda and your care for her these past few years were an example to all of us. It's hard to say goodbye to a friend, especially as we're the same age. But I know where you'll be going and you and Linda will be together again in God's presence. Your friend, Al Russell
