

Warner E. "Sonny" Sensinger, Jr.

May 17, 2020

Warner E. "Sonny" Sensinger Jr. 88, of Kunkletown, passed away Sunday May 17, 2020. He was the husband of the late Shirley Mae (Mansell) Sensinger. Born in Allentown, he was the son of the late Warner E. "Whitey" Sr, and Pearl E. (Boyer) Sensinger. He was a member of Grace UCC of Allentown. He was a graduate of Allentown High School and Penn State University. He served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War and earned a National Defense Service Medal, Bronze Star and a Purple Heart. He was employed at Ingersoll Rand for 45 years retiring in 1992. He enjoyed bowling, deepsea fishing, the mountains, wood working, Philadelphia Eagles, Phillies and Penn State Sports. He is survived by his daughters, JoAnne wife of William Harr, and Terri Kline; grandchildren Amanda Brandon Kline, Noah Sensinger, and Nichole Rey; great grandson Zaiden Rey; sister, Janice Frank. He was predeceased by son Jeffrey, brother, Theodore Sensinger, and sister, Doris Brong. Services Private. Contributions to the family in care of the funeral home.