

William R. Killgore, Sr.

March 28, 2022

William R. Killgore, Sr. 87, formerly of Allentown, passed away Monday, March 28, 2022 at home in Long Pond, PA. He was the husband of the late Betty Jean (Rex) Killgore. Born in Mansfield, Tioga Co., he was the son of the late William F. and Helen D. (Cass) Killgore. After graduating from Mansfield Univ. with a bachelor's degree in history and master's degree in Education from Temple Univ., he worked for 35 years for the Allentown School District. He taught at Raub Jr. High and Wm. Allen High School. Additionally, he taught student and adult driver courses. He was beloved by many of his former students, who would frequently approach him to discuss their time in his classroom. After retiring, he was on the Lehigh Valley Institute for Learning in Retirement Board as past president and instructor. He volunteered at L.V. Hospital for 25 years. He was a member of Episcopal Church of the Mediator. For over 60 years, he was a F&AM in the Lehigh Valley and prior at Blue Lodge in Tioga Co. and also was with the Rajah Shrine, Reading. He was active in the Summer Harmony group and enjoyed attending band concerts. He served with the National Guard. He loved and will be greatly missed by his canine companion Finley.
