“ Tammy, When someone you love passes away, you never quite get over it. You just slowly learn how to go on with them tucked safely in your heart. At this sad time, after the tears are gone, all the beautiful memories will remain. There are no words to take away the pain in such a sudden loss. But underneath the words there are deep feelings that you are cared for warmly, you are thought about often, and you are wished the peace of treasured memories. Thoughts and prayers are with you and your family
